PATRICK HENRY HIGH SCHOOL
ASHLAND, VIRGINIA

VOLUME II

Lithographed by: Taylor Publishing Company Dallas, Texas

Students enter a completed Patrick Henry High School in September, 1960

Foreword

This year the "Voice" has included all the events of the school year in one issue. Though this has not been done in recent years, the staff feels that a better record of school activities may be kept by following this plan of production.

During the 1960-61 school operating year, every department of Patrick Henry High School excelled in its field. Due to the publicity afforded these accomplishments, this high school has become well known and respected. Hence, the theme of Volume II of the Patrick Henry Voice is, PATRIOTS MAKE THE NEWS.

The editor discusses yearbook finances with the business manager.

Due to the hard work and imaginative thinking of the staff of the Voice, the second edition of our yearbook has been marked by an increase of thirty-seven pages. The Business Staff and the Literary Staff worked hand in hand to produce a bigger and better yearbook. Miss Presley, our advisor, can not be adequately thanked or commended for the work she has performed.

MR. W. NELSON TAYLOR, Principal of Patrick Henry High School

Mr. Taylor, a native of Virginia, received his B.A. degree from Randolph-Macon College and his M.A. degree from the University of Richmond.

During World War II, he served in the Air Force and now is a captain in the Air Force Reserve.

Mr. Taylor and his wife, the former Mae Derieux, have two children, Walter Nelson, Jr. and Page Derieux, and live in Hanover, Virginia.

MR. R. WATSON DURHAM, William and Mary College, is Assistant Principal and Athletic Director of Patrick Henry High School.

MRS. DORIS QUARLES, B.A., Randolph-Macon College, is the Patrick Henry Guidance Counselor.

MRS. JANE MOSES, Secretary of Patrick Henry High School

MR. JAMES ACOSTA, B.A., University of Louisville; FROC, Royal College of Organists, teaches Spanish, World Geography, and sponsors the Senior Class. His jokes and wonderful sense of humor make him a favorite with students and add spice to his classes.

MRS. PHYLLIS B. ANDREWS, B.S., University of Virginia, teaches General Mathematics and eighth grade Mathematics. Her patience and warm personality make her a favorite among the students.

Mrs. Quarles, Mrs. Clift, and Mrs. Luck accompany the Senior Class on their

MRS. DAY BLICKENSTAFF, B.S., Cedar Crest College, teacher of Biology and Chemistry, sponsors the Bios Club. Her interesting lectures and fascinating lab work help the students develop scientific minds.

MRS. EDITH BROOKS, B.S., Longwood College, teaches English. Her thorough instruction in English prepares students for the upper classes of high school.

MRS. VICKI BROUGHMAN, B.S., Madison College, teaches Physical Education, coaches the girls' athletic teams and sponsors the Cheerleaders. Her understanding and friendliness make her a companion to all the girls.

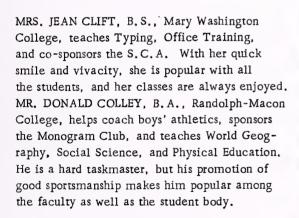

MRS. RHODA BUCKLEY, B.A., William and Mary College, is School Librarian and sponsors the Library Club. Her sincere interest and helpful training inspires good reading habits among the students.

trip to Washington.

MRS. ELISE CAGE, B.A., Westhampton College, teaches Plane Geometry, Algebra, and Senior Arithmetic. She is liked by her students for her sense of humor and thorough teaching methods.

MRS. JESSIE LEE CAMPBELL, B.A., Southeastern State College, teaches Shorthand, Typing, General Business, sponsors the Senior Class and F.B.L.A. The inspiration that she gives her students makes her an ideal teacher.

MRS. BOBBIE COOPER, B.S., East Tennessee State College, teaches General Science and Physical Education, sponsors the Majorettes, and coaches the girls' Softball team. She was a welcome addition to the faculty.

MRS. IVY CROSS, B.S., Madison College, teaches Home Economics and sponsors the Hanover Future Homemakers of America Federation. Her friendly attitude to her students encourages them to reach for higher goals.

MRS. ALMA RUTH DURHAM, Collegiate Professional, Madison College, teaches Home Economics and sponsors the F.H.A. Federation. Her friendly attitude to her students encourages them to reach for higher goals.

MRS. LAVONA GLAVE, B.S., University of Illinois, teaches Science and sponsors the S.C.A. Her students enjoy her scientific interests and regard them with admiration.

MRS. ALLIE HALBLEIB, B. A., Westhampton College, teaches English and sponsors the newspaper. Her willingness to help her students makes her popular with all.

MR. CARLTON HALL, B.S., Virginia Polytechnic Institute, teaches Agriculture and sponsors F.F.A. His students are well prepared for future careers.

MR. D. K. JOHNSTON, B.A., M.A., University of Richmond, teaches English and sponsors Forensics. His interest in Literature and Business English inspires his students to do many things.

MISS NANCY KEITH, B.S., East Carolina College, teaches Home Economics and sponsors the F.H.A. Her understanding and personality make her classes a pleasure to attend.

MRS. LINDA LUCK, B.S., Mary Washington College, teaches Government, sponsors the Senior Class and Citizenship Club. Government classes enjoy the many activities that she initiates.

MRS. ELIZABETH MARTIN, B.S., Longwood College; M.A., University of South Carolina, teaches Latin and sponsors the Honoris Causa. Her devotion to Latin is appreciated by her students.

MRS. MONA McCLURKIN, B.S., University of Arkansas, teaches English. Her knowledge of literature is a continual source of amazement to her students.

MR. CHARLES McKINNEY, B.S., Massachusetts Institute of Technology, teaches Mechanical Drawing, Physics, Mathematics, and sponsors the Science Club and Projectionists' Club. His interest in science makes it an intriguing subject.

MRS. RUTH MOORE, B.A., Greensboro College; M.A., Duke University, teaches World History and English and sponsors the National Honor Society. Her knowledge of English and History is considered a valuable asset.

MISS AUDREY NUCKOLLS, B.A., Westhampton College, teaches History and co-sponsors the Citizenship Club and Beta Club. She has added spirit and spice to this school, although she is a newcomer.

MISS ARSTELLE PRESLEY, B.S., Richmond Professional Institute, teaches Shorthand and Typing, sponsors the yearbook, and assists with the F.B.L.A. Her pleasing smile and "witty" personality make her a favorite with all.

MRS. KATHLEEN PUGH, B.A., Flora Mac-donald College, teaches eighth grade Mathematics and General Mathematics. Her thorough explanations produce good mathematics students.

MRS. MARGARET REED, B.A., Westhampton College; M.A., University of Richmond, teaches Social Studies and English, and sponsors the Dramatics Club. Her sincere interest in students, both in and out of classes, helps make her a "first rate" teacher.

MR. FRANK REYNOLDS, B.A., Randolph-Macon College, teaches eighth grade English and French and co-sponsors the "Spark." The encouragement and help which he extends to each student is greatly appreciated.

MR. GLENN RUDACILLE, B.A., Randolph-Macon College, teaches Physical Education, coaches all boys' teams and sponsors the Monogram Club. His coaching, sportsmanship, and understanding make him an ideal coach.

MRS. BYRD SCHMIERER, B.S., Longwood College, teaches Algebra I, Plane Geometry, and sponsors the F.T.A. Her patience and thorough teaching methods have won the admiration of her students.

MR. HARVEY SEAL, B.S., Virginia Polytechnic Institute, teaches Vocational Agriculture, sponsors the F.F.A. The many awards won by his students show his devotion and interest in his profession.

MR. RAY STRUDER, B.A., Virginia Polytechnic Institute, teaches Bookkeeping, General Business, and coaches boys' J.V. athletics. His unusual personality and sense of humor make his classes interesting.

MRS. ELEANOR TENNY, B.S., Wesleyan College; M.A., University of West Virginia, teaches Biology, General Science, and sponsors the Science Research Club. Because of her sincerity, she is a friend of all the students.

MR. FRANK THOMPSON, B.S., University of Maryland, teaches General Science. His interest in science stimulates the students' enthusiasm in this field.

MISS CLARA TILLER, B.S., Madison, teacher of English, enlivens her class with a sense of humor and dramatization of plays.

MR. JACK WINN, B.M., R.P.I., instructs the band and chorus. In his efforts to aid the musical growth of his students, he has proved to be a source of inspiration to them.

Varsity Cheerleaders

The 1960-61 cheerleaders are made up of 8 seniors and 2 juniors. They are sponsored by Mrs. Vicki Broughman. This experienced group has done an excellent job raising school spirit, supporting the teams and representing our high school in many events. These girls have worked hard, under the capable leadership of Donna Lee Tyson, captain, and Ann Blunt, assistant, to present originality in pep rallies and at games. They have attended all games to lead the excited fans in cheers.

The P.H.H.S. cheerleaders have participated in events such as the Tobacco Festival, the Thalhimers cheer rally and the Rescue Squad parade, and the Thalhimers Toy parade. They also designed and made their new basketball uniforms. This animated group has been an asset to Patrick Henry High School.

The Varsity cheerleaders work with the J.V. to present a lively pep rally.

Patriot

Carneal, Tate, Andrews, Martin, Stanley, Loving and Waleski were the starting offensive line for the rugged Patriots.

The second Patrick Henry football team, under the excellent leadership of head coach Glenn Rudacille and assistant coach Don Colley, rebounded from an average season last year to a great one this year. The Patriots rolled to an outstanding 6-2-1 record. Finishing in the upper half of their district. The Patriots leading the District 2 race for almost three quarters of the season, lost the title when they lost heartbreaking games to Powhatan and Colonial Heights. The Patriots, even though they lost the championship on the breaks of the game, have their 13-7 victory over Midlothian, Group 2 Champions, and their 19-19 tie with powerful Varina as consolation to the team's efforts.

The Patriots, with a strong cast of Seniors, Juniors and a few Sophomores, combined to complete a season of many surprises and heartbreaks, finishing with fine spirit and an instilled desire to win.

Starke, Palmore, and Moser stare in amazement at opposing cheerleader.

Ugh! "Good tackle," "Look at him go!"
These are phrases that were often heard at the Patrick Henry J. V. football games. The J. V.
Patriots, who compiled a very creditable record this year, under the training and coaching of Ray Struder, was a team to be respected. The Patriots won four games and lost three.

The Patriots, led by spunky, little quarterback Russ Palmore, drove down the field many times to cross the "big white stripe."

The junior Patriots also had the benefit of the agile Ronnie Alfano and Ronnie Tyson, the determined power of Larry Hutchinson and the hard working linemen such as Jimmy Cobb, Charles Walton, Berry Wright, David Ellington, Larry Gilman, and Walter Hoye. Without these all-important linemen there would never have been a hole for the backs, capable as they were, to plunge through.

Patriot Girls Have Amazing Comeback

The girls' basketball team under the guidance of a new coach, Mrs. Vicki Broughman, finished their second consecutive winning season. The girls lost their first four games, and then came roaring back to win the last five games they played. The Patriot girls were led in scoring by Johnny Ragland, Jean Grooms and Pam Howard. The team's tight defense was headed by Betsy Durham, Edith Mills and "Baby Sis" Gilman.

The 1960 Patrick Henry baseball team under the instruction of coach Glenn Rudacille finished their first season with only one loss on their record. The Patriots won ten games and lost only to a strong Varina team.

A strong pitching staff led by Ray Murphy, Topper Davis and Tommie Goodman held the opposition to less than three runs a game.

The strong pitching was backed up by the booming bats of Steve Harris, Dick Jones and Craig Halbleib. Garland Lloyd and Topper Davis provided the long ball necessary to have a top team.

Strong pitching, booming bats and an adequate defense proved too much for the opposition.

Ralph Johnson is called out at third base.

Accurate Patriots

The Patriots, with a strong cast of Seniors and a few Juniors, completed their most successful season, winning 13 of 15 games. The only losses came to a highly rated Midlothian team. The Patriots' team was comprised of a group of excellent shots and ball handlers, but lacked the overall height to defeat the tall Midlothian team. The team was led in scoring by B.

A. Stanley, Butch Waleski, and Topper Davis, who had 12.7, 12.9, and 10.0 averages per game respectively. Craig Halbleib was the team playmaker and top ball handler. Harold Starke, Ray Tate, and Stuart Leadbetter were valuable assets to the team in scoring and rebounding.

Coach Rudacille is interviewed over radio at the tournament by a local sportscaster.

Finish Second

Patrick Henry

67

King George

41

The Patriots, in their second straight District tournament, defeated a very stubborn King George team by a sixteen-point margin. The team fell behind early in the game, but due to the excellent marksmanship of B. A. Stanley, who made six straight shots in the third quarter, trailed only shortly. Stanley was the game's high scorer with 20 points, aided by Waleski, Davis and Halbleib who had 13, 10, and 13 points respectively. This victory entitled the Patriots to play the winner of the Madison, Fluvanna game, which was Madison.

Patrick Henry

Madison

51

The Patriots, roused by their near defeat the previous night, started with a sudden burst against a hot shooting team. They got off to an early 16 to 2 lead, but this lead quickly dwindled. Madison pulled ahead 21 to 20 near the end of the first half, but Waleski scored three quick baskets which put the Patriots ahead for good. Waleski was the game's high scorer with 24 points, aided by Starke, Halbleib, Davis and Stanley who had 10, 10, 12, 12 points respectively.

Patrick Henry

Midlothian

74

The Patriots, meeting a fired-up Midlothian attack led by Bill Kirtley, never came close to the Trojans. The Trojans hit a high percentage of their shots, while the Patriots hardly had a percentage. The team was unable to hit from the outside which is a necessity against the tall Midlothian team. The team, failing to hit the entire game, fell farther and farther behind as the game progressed. The team was led in scoring by Stanley, Waleski and Davis who had 12, 12 and 11 points respectively. At the conclusion of this game, the Patriots were awarded a trophy for their second place finish in the tournament.

J.V. Gridders Complete Winning Season

Hours of practice paid off for the junior varsity basketball squad. Under the coaching of Don Colley, they completed the season with a record of 12 wins and 3 losses. The losses were to Midlothian and Spotsylvania.

They twice defeated a strong Varina team, District 2 J.V. champions. The J.V. was well-endowed with both height and speed, and had strong reserves on the bench.

1961 Group II District II Champions

The 1961 Patriots under the leadership of a new coach, win District Championship. A small coach with a great desire to win, Don Colley gave a good team a desire to be a great one. The team with this instilled desire, entered the Group II, District II Tournament at Highland Springs. When the dust had cleared for the final out, the Patriots had completely demolished their little opposition.

The Patriots were led by co-captains Garland Lloyd and Topper Davis. Lloyd led the team in hitting and Davis was the most effective pitcher.

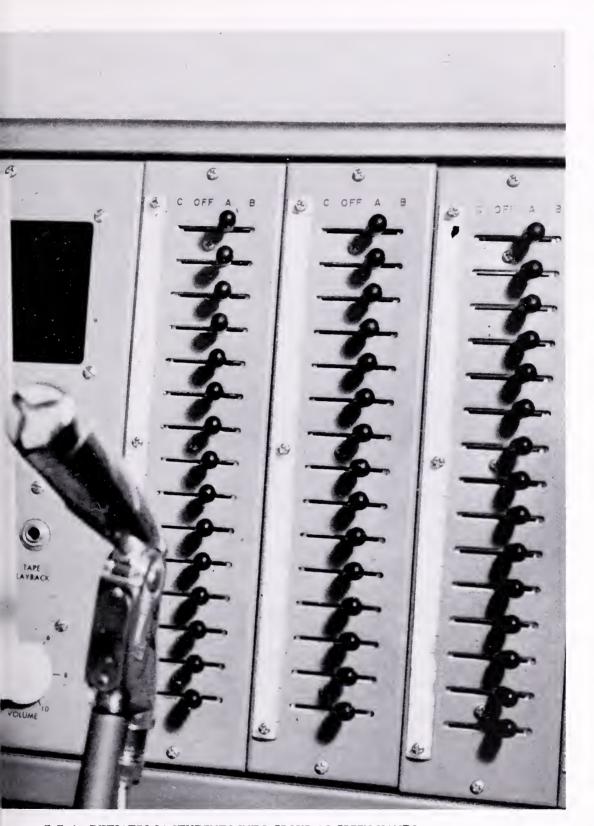

The Patriots landed six players on the First Team All-District Team. They were Harris, Halbleib, Johnson, Jones, Lloyd and Davis.

Encourages Leadership

While the student body was enjoying a carefree vacation, a few members of the Student Council were working hard to plan, compile, illustrate, and print our first student handbook. This handbook was prepared to acquaint students with the rules, regulations and activities of Patrick Henry High School.

On the opening day of school, council members could be seen everywhere, wearing ribbons denoting them as guides, registering students and answering questions. In the fall, they served as guides at the P.T.A. open house.

Highlighting the school year was the Christmas Holly Ball, December 22. Throughout the evening, sparkling smiles and colorful party dresses proved the evening a huge success, displaying eager interest on the part of the students,

To help get the annual magazine drive underway, homeroom representatives became homeroom captains. Due to their efforts and the work of the student body, the goal was surpassed.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Clift and Mrs. Glave, the council members attended the Youth Forum in Richmond, aided in picture sales, presented Mr. Ernest Mason, past co-sponsor of the S.C.A., with a gift and arranged a state convention display.

As the eventful year drew to a close, there was stiff campaigning and competition as the students selected the officers of the Student Cooperative Association for 1961-62. Jim Chenery was elected President. He will be assisted by Carolyn Keyes, Vice-President; Anna Belle Corbin, Secretary; John Moore, Treasurer; and Lyn Letson, Historian.

THE PATRICK HENRY CHORUS 1960-1961

Band Is Recognized for Participation

The band officers admire new uniforms. The officers are: Billy Brown, Band Captain, Tommy Vaughan, Drum Major, Faye Brady, President, Janice Stiefbold, Librarian, Walter Hoye, Reporter, Ann Sale, Sec.-Treas., Jim Mills, V.-Pres., and Band Captain.

The 1960-61 Patrick Henry band, under the direction of Mr. Winn, made its debut during the football season. It played at five of the games. The band then participated in the Ashland Rescue Squad Parade.

in Parades, Assemblies, and Spring Concert

The arrival of twenty-five new uniforms brought the total number of uniforms to fifty. The band represented Patrick Henry High school at the music festival at Manchester High school where it received a grade three rating. The band also presented the spring concert.

Band members enjoy leadership of Mr. Winn.

Club members enjoy the facilities of the listening room in the Patrick Henry Library.

Music Appreciation Club

A group of students, who want to hear and sponsor programs which have basic cultural music values, started the Music Appreciation Club this year. Consisting of 38 members at this time, the club is open to any interested student. The aim of the club in the immediate future is to soundproof the library room and to stock it with chairs, a good record player and records. All this would be available to any member of the club, all of whom have the desire to listen to good music—good music being defined by Mr. Winn, the sponsor, as any music really enjoyed and appreciated for the satisfactory effect on the individual.

Mr. Winn, band instructor, demonstrates the proper use of the record player to the members of the club.

Majorettes

The majorettes this year consist of nine girls. They are as follows: Patsy Dunn, senior; Jewell Dean Burkholder, Joan Carter, and Joan Pollard, all juniors; and five sophomores: Linda Beard, Gloria Epperly, Joan Longest, Elin Wellman, and Sue Tyus.

Elin Wellman, the head majorette, is assisted by Joan Carter with Sue Tyus as the Secretary-Treasurer.

The majorettes made their first appearance this year during the half-time of the King George football game. They performed in new uniforms which are blue velvet lined in red satin.

During the summer, two of the majorettes went to the College of William and Mary, and took baton lessons. They hope that more of the girls will be able to attend this summer.

The majorettes have performed at all the home games. They ended their 1960-61 activities with a performance at the Spring Concert.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is a newly formed club at Patrick Henry. This year eighteen members were tapped in an assembly, held before the entire student body. To become a member of the National Honor Society a candidate must be a rising Senior and have demonstrated high scholastic and leadership ability.

Bios Club

The Bios Club, sponsored by Mrs. Blickenstaff, is an honorary club, composed of students who have maintained an "A" average in Biology and a "B" in all of other classes. It sponsored the Science Fair this year and is a member of The Virginia Jr. Academy of Science.

Honoris Causa

Honoris Causa encourages learning for its own sake. Those who have been received into the order have intellectual curiosity. Mental and moral discipline builds character and character is the basis of leadership. Members of Honoris Causa are leaders whether or not they hold school offices. The satisfaction that comes from a job well done, the horizons that are broadened through study, the rewards that follow new interests make worthwhile the struggle for scholarship of the highest quality. Seniors who have been recognized by Honoris Causa know that the harder the struggle the greater the achievement.

Boys' Varsity Club Is Founded

"Sportsmanship." "Teamwork." "Fair Play," and "Desire." These are the traits that have been demonstrated by each member of the newly formed Boys' Varsity Club. All members have received a letter in some varsity sport. The Boys' Varsity Club was formed to stress these characteristics and to develop school spirit.

If you see a group of boys selling drinks at the Camptown Races, or piling papers into a truck, they probably will be members of the Varsity Club trying to raise money for the Athletic Department. Some of the funds raised will be used to purchase Varsity Club jackets and to sponsor the Pigskin Ball next year.

The Varsity Club is under the guidance of Head Coach Glenn Rudacille and Assistant Coach Don Colley.

Athletes gain membership in the Varsity Club by giving their all to the sport in which they participate.

Mr. McKinney assists a club member in focusing a microscope.

From studying with telescopes to the building of them, the Science Research Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Tenney, advanced step by step. They attended several talks at Randolph Macon College and were fortunate to have speakers from the college come to Patrick Henry to present programs.

These future scientists finished the year with individual projects.

P.H. Students Win Many Honors

Linda Beard tells Elizabeth Troxell and Judy Christian the good news that she has placed in the poetry reading contest.

Princesses of the Pigskin Ball were: Anna Andrusz, Donna Tyson, Carolyn Doggett, Dianne Howard, Linda Campbell, Donna Bass, Alice Radler, Shelby Satterwhite, Jean Carter, Lyn Letson, Carolyn Keyes, Pat Bruce, Nancy Thommason, Laura Lane, and Judy Doggett.

First Home Game — Goochland and Dance The Pigskin Ball

Cheerleaders anxiously await the outcome of the last play of the game.

Mr. Winn's band plays in shifts. This dance was to commemorate the dedication of the lights on the football field.

Mr. Taylor, principal of Patrick Henry High School, congratulates the newly tapped members of the National Honor Society during an Awards Assembly.

The cheerleaders chosen for the 1961-62 school year are as follows: Lyn Letson, Virginia Vaughan, Sandra Campbell, Carolyn Keyes, Alice Radler, Shelby Satterwhite, Brenda Gibson, Pettus Frazier, and Faye Chewning.

These Varsity Cheerleaders were chosen by a committee of students, faculty members, and former cheerleaders.

"We're all behind you, Patriots." This feeling was expressed by those who attended the Basketball Tournament in March, 1961. The tournament produced good attendance and outstanding sportsmanship.

The Spring Concert, held May 26, 1961, at the Patrick Henry Gymnasium, was given, under the direction of Mr. John Winn, by the Band, Chorus, and the Majorettes.

The charter members of the Patrick Henry Chapter of the National Honor Society welcome new members into that Society during a special ceremony for the induction of new members.

The Patrick Henry Chorus, led by Mr. Winn, presented a variety of Christmas songs at a Yuletide Assembly.

Congratulations!!! Excellent Work! These students achieved straight A's in all subjects for the first semester, while participating in many outside activities.

There is more activity on the dance floor when refreshment time comes than there is while the band plays.

Holly Ball December 1960

The Holly Ball, given by the S.C.A. for the whole student body just before Christmas vacation, was well attended. The gay decorations helped the students to attain a festive mood. Below, Carolyn Doggett, Gloria Pleasants, and another student decorate for the dance.

The music was provided by a combo led by Mr. John Winn.

Nelson Flippo and John Hale are seen passing through the lunch line on A lunch. Lunch period is looked forward to by Patrick Henry students as a time for good food and relaxation.

Students are instructed in dancing once a week during gym class. Dance steps from rock 'n' roll to waltz are taught.

John Thomas Moody concentrates on a riplet while on a trip to Randolph-Macon College where a vocational guidance clinic was being held. Senior Class members who attended had lunch at the Town House Restaurant.

Joan Longest and Elizabeth Troxell demonstrate their gymnastic ability to their classmates not realizing that a camera was also interested.

These students are the first to board the buses after the three o'clock bell.

Mr. Winn believes the band to be under his direction.

I don't believe it, I don't believe it!!

"Don't shoot, Coach, we're going," said Wilber Mills and Vernon Burnett.

These letters spelling out the name of our high school were purchased and installed in the fall of 1960.

Students read new edition of the Spark, the school newspaper, and relax after a wholesome meal in the cafeteria.

Mr. D. K. Johnston and a Randolph-Macon student judge a contestant in the public speaking division of the Forensic meet held at Patrick Henry School.

Karen Kintner and Joe Lingle compare notes with their opponents in the debate division of the Forensic Meet. Their opponents are students at Lee-Davis High School in eastern Hanover.

Patriots Participate in Civic

Betty Lou Hall, Donna Bass, Judy Belle Harris and Carolyn Doggett were the Charity Princesses for the 1960 Charity Drive, sponsored by the Ashland Kiwanis Club.

Vernon Burnett works diligently to secure source cards for English term paper.

Affairs

These are the hands of a draftsman???

Jane Cross and Glenn Mitchell apparently have reversed a custom. Jane seems to be carrying Glenn's books.

While the team inspects a picture just taken, the photographer takes another.

Juniors Order Rings

Kathy Harley, Tommy Jones and Danny Alfred discuss merits of various ring types while Mr. Pickard writes orders.

Frank Matro explains his Science Fair exhibit to two interested spectators.

Bios Club Sponsors Science Fair

The Science Fair given by the Bios Club was marked by good attendance.

Jay May is awarded Grand Prize for his exhibit in the Science Fair by Mr. Sisson.

After a safe driving assembly, braking distances of an automobile were demonstrated.

Safe Driving Assembly Held

The Key Club arranged a volleyball game with the male members of the Patrick Henry faculty. Much to the surprise of everyone, the faculty won.

Student-Faculty Game Played

A Paul Jones was an effective way to persuade everyone to dance during an after-the-game sock-hop.

The members of the Class of 1961 who made the trip to Washington, D.C., found the trip most informative and worthwhile.

Seniors Make Trip to Washington

Several of our faculty members accompanied the class on the trip. Shown here are Mrs. Clift, Mrs. Campbell and Mr. McKinney.

Senator Harry F. Byrd and Mr. H. B. Clay greeted class members on their arrival at the capitol.

Some of these students were not aware that this picture was being taken on the bus ride between the station and the capitol.

Jim Chenery, later elected to presidency of the S.C.A., makes a campaign speech before the student body.

S.C.A. Campaigns

Candidates for office in S.C.A. were: President: Jim Chenery, Andrew Duke; Vice-President: Larry Gilman, Carolyn Keyes; Secretary: Karen Clay, Anna Belle Corbin; Treasurer: John Moore, Judy Mosby; Historian: Lyn Letson, Charlotte Waldrop.

Those elected were: Jim Chenery, Carolyn Keyes, Anna Belle Corbin, John Moore, and Lyn Letson.

Seniors Travel

Members of Senior Class boarding bus at Cold Harbor Battlefield while on a tour of historical points of interest in Hanover County.

Members of the Class of 1961 and their dates dance after the Senior figure during the Junior-Senior Prom - 1961.

Junior-Senior Prom May, 1961

Nelson Flippo and Cabell Luck???

Seniors practice the Senior figure.

Many trial shots were made before the camera was right for Prom pictures.

Mrs. Clift, Mrs. Quarles, and Mrs. Luck assist Seniors in dressing for the Senior Class picture while the photographer relaxes.

Commencement June 1961

Seniors file into gymnasium before the assembly given in honor of the Senior Class.

The Senior Class party, held at Evalinwood Farms, brought forth good food and Bermuda shorts.
